I. Course Description
Spanish 101 (the ongoing Spanish I) is a five-credit course that serves as an introduction to Spanish language and culture for the student who has had little or no previous instruction in Spanish. Along with the many advantages of being able to communicate in Spanish, successful completion of this course will give you a solid foundation with which to continue second semester study of the language with either a conversation course or SPAN102.

II. Course Objectives
In this course there is an equal emphasis on listening comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. With your commitment to study Spanish daily (at least 10 hours per week, outside of
